

UTeach Austin Graduate Impact SPRING 2023

UTeach Austin, the flagship program of a national network of colleges and universities working together to improve STEM teaching and learning, produces high-quality STEM teachers year after year. UTeach Austin graduates are teaching in 143 school districts in 27 states (88% in Texas) and internationally. UTeach has a significant local impact, with graduates teaching in nearly all Central Texas school districts.

UTeach programs produce passionate, well-prepared teachers who stay in teaching longer and improve student performance in math and science.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW? UTEACH AUSTIN GRADUATES SINCE 2015

DATA COLLECTED IN 2023

“When I arrived at UT, I was a biology pre-med student, but towards the end of my second year, I realized that it wasn’t my passion. I made the decision to switch my major to math and undertake a minor in UTeach, and I must say that it was the best decision I could’ve possibly made.”
